

Mystic Bingo Fact Sheet

History

- Minnesota's first high stakes bingo hall opened on the reservation of the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community on October 16, 1982.
- In 1992, the bingo hall moved from its original location in Little Six Casino to Celebrity Palace at the newly constructed Mystic Lake Casino Hotel.
- The new Mystic Bingo officially opened on October 16, 2007 – a date that marks the 25th anniversary of bingo on the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux reservation.
- Mystic Bingo occupies part of a newly constructed wing at Mystic Lake Casino Hotel. Other additions include the new Mystic Showroom and various administrative offices.

Design

- For ease of play, and to create a more social playing environment, the room offers spacious rectangle and hexagon-shaped marble tables. These tables were made in-house by SMSC Gaming Enterprise's furnishings department.
- Mystic Bingo is large enough to comfortably seat more than 600 guests.
- The room offers an advanced lighting system with six moving lights (similar to disco lights) and translucent panels capable of producing colored, mirror ball effects in the ceiling.
- There are 15 flat-screen monitors and five large projection screen so guests can easily view the game rules and balls being called.
- Improved sound technology allows guests to more clearly hear the caller and report their wins without having to yell.

Guest Amenities

- Guests have the choice of playing in either the smoking or non-smoking areas. These areas are separated by a closed pane of glass.
- Guests can enjoy a number of new bingo-style games. For example, late night bingo enthusiasts can participate in Cosmic Bingo. This game utilizes a number of black lights, as well as florescent stamps and glowing bingo cards to create an enhanced experience for guests.
- The room also has a complete snack bar for guests. To ensure short lines and less waiting, Mystic Bingo provides three separate drink stations.
- For groups of players, guests can reserve a small party area for up to 20 people. This area of Mystic Bingo can be booked through the Mystic Lake group sales department for any number of occasions.
